

The NYU Wagner Rudin Center for Transportation Policy & Management

in concert with

The Permanent Citizens Advisory Committee to the MTA

Cordially Invite You To:

“TRANSIT ORIENTED DEVELOPMENT IN THE NEW YORK METROPOLITAN REGION”

Forum panelists will discuss Transit Oriented Development (TOD)—what it is, specific initiatives in progress or completed, and the benefits and obstacles to its implementation.

Featuring Panelists:

Eric Alexander, Vision Long Island

Vivian Baker, NJ Transit

Joseph Chan, MTA

Randall Fleischer, MTA Metro-North Railroad

Larry Gould, MTA NYC Transit

Robert Lane, Regional Plan Association

Elisa Picca, MTA Long Island Rail Road

Ellyn Shannon, Permanent Citizens Advisory Committee to the MTA

Wednesday, November 1, 2006

8:30 am – 12:00 pm

2nd Floor Conference
NYU Wagner, The Puck Building
295 Lafayette Street
New York, NY

In an effort to foster productive dialogue, seating is limited.

Please R.S.V.P. by October 25th to My Linh H. Nguyen-Novotny at mnn2@nyu.edu.